REACH – Article 33(1) Statement for Customers of Goodyear Dunlop Tires Europe B.V.

The purpose of this statement is to inform customers of Goodyear Dunlop Tires Europe B.V. (Goodyear) regarding the presence or absence of substances of very high concern (SVHC) in tyres.

Pursuant to Article 33(1) of the European Union Registration, Evaluation, Authorization of Chemicals (REACH) Regulation 1907/2006/EC, Goodyear, on behalf of itself and its operating subsidiaries, has an obligation to communicate to professional customers information about certain substances contained in our tyres that are manufactured in or imported into the EU 28 Member States. Where an article, such as a tyre, contains any substances meeting the criteria in Article 57 and identified in accordance with Article 59(1) in a concentration above 0,1 % weight by weight (w/w), Goodyear is obligated to provide sufficient information to allow safe use of the article including, as a minimum, the name of that contained substance.

The European Chemicals Agency (ECHA) has officially published the Candidate List of Substances of Very High Concern (SVHC) that meet the above criteria. The Candidate List was last updated on 16 January 2020 to include in total 205 substances; the Candidate List can be viewed via the following web link <https://echa.europa.eu/candidate-list-table>

In response to our above obligations, please be informed that none of the substances in the referenced Candidate List of Substances of Very High Concern (SVHC) are contained, in a concentration of greater than 0,1% (w/w), in any of the tyres we manufacture in or import into the EU28.

It is our intention to meet the requirements set out by REACH, and we shall continue to inform you, in the framework of our business relations, of any changes to the above.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned.

Sincerely,

Dr Wolfgang Lauer
